

VOL. XLIX...No. 15,777.

GRATEFUL PORTUGUESE.

THEY SHOW THEIR APPRECIATION OF FRENCH AND SPANISH SYMPATHY.

A NATIONAL DEFENCE FUND STARTED—A SPANISH DEPUTY MOVING FOR IBERIAN UNION.

Lisbon, Jan. 24.—A large meeting was held in the Trinity Theatre last night to start a fund for the National Defence. The Duke of Pomares presided. A committee of 120, consisting of leading citizens and naval and military officers, was appointed to solicit subscriptions to the fund. A number of speeches were made, in which England was bitterly assailed for the course she has followed in the dispute with Portugal, and the French and Spanish lauded for their sympathy with the Portuguese. A number of subscriptions were made to the fund by persons present at the meeting.

Three thousand Portuguese citizens have left their cards at the French and Spanish Legations in this city to show their appreciation of the sympathy with Portugal shown by the French and Spanish in the Anglo-Portuguese dispute.

The Madrid correspondent of the "Seculo" reports that the Republican Deputy Labro will move in the Spanish Chamber of Deputies the consideration of the subject of Iberian union. The "Seculo" says: "The project of the union of Spain and Portugal will receive no support from Spanish Republicans. The two countries should combine for a defensive and offensive alliance without any complication or limitation of the self-government or political independence of either."

The British colony resident here will have a meeting to-morrow to decide upon a petition to be sent to Mr. Gladstone requesting intervention in the difficulties made for them by the dispute. The British residents at Oporto will do the same.

London, Jan. 24.—Mr. Glynn-Petres, the British Minister at Lisbon, has telegraphed the Admiralty that the steam yacht Enchantress is no longer required at Lisbon. This vessel was held at his disposition in the Tagus to communicate with the ironclads held in readiness for an offensive demonstration. Mr. Glynn-Petres communication is consequently interpreted as indicating that the difficulty has received a diplomatic solution, and that the fleet will not be called upon.

A dispatch from Lisbon states that the announcement that the Marquis de Frialho would be appointed Portuguese Minister to Great Britain was incorrect. Senhor Barjona de Freitas was appointed to the post.

The Delagoa Bay Railway has been completed to the frontier of the Transvaal.

Sir James Fergusson, Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, speaking to-day at Kilmarnock, referred to the proposition to submit to arbitration Portugal's claims, and said: "There was nothing in the claim to arbitrate. It was baseless and absurd."

BANK OF THE UNITED STATES OF BRAZIL.
ITS CAPITAL, $100,000,000, SUBSCRIBED IN FOUR HOURS IN RIO-BRAZILIAN NEWS.

Washington, Jan. 24.—Mr. Valente, the Brazilian Minister here, to-day received the following cable dispatch from Ruy Barboza, the Brazilian Minister of Finance, dated Rio Janeiro, January 24:

"The capital for the great National banking institution, to be known as the National Bank of the United States of Brazil, was subscribed to-day within four hours. The capital is $100,000,000."

Mr. Valente regards this as the crucial test of the confidence of the people in the stability and permanency of the new Republic. Mr. Valente added that the people of Brazil, without any regard to class distinctions, were united in supporting the new Government.

Buenos Ayres, Jan. 24, via Galveston.—News from Rio Janeiro states that a defalcation of 60,000 pesos has been discovered in the Telegraph Department, of which Baron de Capanema was chief. The Baron had been arrested and lodged in prison. It is asserted by the cashier of the Department that De Capanema disposed of the money, and that he was assisted by others, against whom warrants of arrest have been issued. Baron de Capanema is a foster-brother of the ex-Emperor, Dom Pedro.

Montevideo, Jan. 24, via Galveston.—The Brazilian and Argentine Ministers will hold preliminary conferences in regard to the form of a boundary treaty. Minister Bexavia has resolved to terminate the territorial question without awaiting the arrival of Colonel Cerqueiraes, the consulting member of the committee that explored the territory in dispute, who is now on his way here.

BRITISH COLUMBIA SEALERS HOPEFUL.

Victoria, B. C., Jan. 24.—The Legislature convened yesterday. The speech from the throne was read by Chief Justice Sir M. B. Begbie, Lieutenant-Governor Nelson being ill with the grippe. The revenue of the last year exceeded the estimates by 20 per cent. The outlook for gold mining is promising. Aid for the construction of railways to open up the mining districts will be considered. The speech states that "the protection of our people in the exercise of their rights in Behring Sea and indemnification for the past have been kept before the Dominion Government, and although delay has been hurtful to the sealing industry and trying to those who have been deprived of their property, there is reason to hope for a speedy settlement."

THE BOLLINGERS STILL LIVELY.

Paris, Jan. 24.—General Boulanger has sent a telegram to M. Paul Ieronde and his colleagues in the Chamber of Deputies who led the recent revolt in that body when M. Joffrin attempted to speak, congratulating them upon showing themselves to be the real defenders of universal suffrage. And for the M. Martenne, member of the Chamber of Deputies, who recently succeeded from the Bonapartist party, entered a meeting of Bollingers held here last night. He was immediately attacked, kicked, cuffed and spit upon, and compelled to sign a resignation of his seat in the Chamber.

CANADA ASKED TO SHUT OUT DRESSED BEEF.

Ottawa, Jan. 24 (Special).—The Government was asked in the House of Commons to-day to impose a prohibitory duty on United States dressed beef coming into Canada. It was stated that official reports show that the maritime provinces, which were generally understood to be shipping large quantities of beef to the United States, are, in fact, relying on the States for their beef supplies. It now costs as much to get the beef cattle 100 miles to market as to bring the dressed beef from Chicago to New York, 1,000 miles.

A ROYAL PREROGATIVE INTERRUPTED.

Ottawa, Jan. 24 (Special).—An important announcement of the discontinuance of a royal prerogative in Canada was made in the House of Commons to-day, Sir John Thompson, Canadian Minister of Justice, had reported to the Imperial Government asserting the separate right of Canada to legislate on any question involving the royal prerogative, and the contention has been accepted by the Crown.

DOCK LABORERS ON STRIKE.

London, Jan. 24.—Two hundred dock laborers employed in unloading the British steamer Leopold Head, Captain Smith, at Liverpool, from Brunswick, stopped work to-day upon the representations of delegates from the Belfast Dock Laborers' Union that the Ulster Steamship Company, to which the Leopold Head belongs, would not concede the demands of the dock laborers.

STRIKERS WITH PARALYSIS ON THE BENCH.

London, Jan. 24.—Judge Manisty, of the Queen's Bench Division of the High Court of Justice, was stricken with paralysis while on the bench to-day. His condition is serious.

MR. SURGEON'S ATTACK OF GOUT.

London, Jan. 24.—Advices from Mentone say there has been a further development of gout in the case of Mr. Spurgeon and that he is now unable to leave that place.

THE GREAT PETERS MYSTERY.

London, Jan. 24.—It is reported that Dr. Peters, the German explorer, is at Subaki.

A ROTHSCHILD FIGHTS A DUEL.

Paris, Jan. 24.—Edmond Rothschild, son of Baron Alphonse Rothschild, became involved in a dispute with Marquis de Gouv. A challenge was sent and accepted, and to-day the duel was fought. The Marquis was wounded.

B. P. HUTCHINSON ROBBED.

VICTIM OF AN ALLEGED CONSPIRACY IN CHICAGO.HIS SETTLING CLERK MADE THE TOOL IN A SERIES OF EMBEZZLEMENTS COVERING A PERIOD OF TWO YEARS.

Chicago, Jan. 24.—R. P. Hutchinson has again been robbed, and one of his settling clerks in the Board of Trade is now in Toronto, the embezzler of an amount ranging anywhere from $25,000 to $40,000. Mr. Hutchinson is not the only victim. W. P. Dickinson & Co., another firm on the same floor with Hutchinson, had a clerk in their employ who, it is alleged, was in the conspiracy, and Mr. Dickinson is loser of an amount which is estimated at from $7,000 to $15,000. His clerk is also in Toronto.

On Tuesday afternoon Dickinson's missing clerk, "Bert" King, complained that he was ill, and he went home. About the same hour Hutchinson's settling clerk, who is known only as Stoner, also became the victim of a very severe attack of the grip, and he left ostensibly for home. That was the last seen of the two.

Mr. Dickinson, who had implicit faith in King and had given him full charge of the books, made an examination. The books were mutilated so badly that everything was chaos. A deficit was found of $2,500. "The Evening Journal" says:

"Although the young men have succeeded in getting beyond the reach of the law, it is a question whether they are much richer by the transactions which have caused their native air to be unwholesome for them, and thereby lands one of the most sensational stories that has stirred Chicago commercial circles for some time. This is nothing less than that this latest embezzlement is only a continuation of wholesale robbery to which 'Old Hutch' has been subjected for nearly two years. Most of the men who have engineered the scheme are said to be operators on the board, who have used certain clerks and employees as their tools, whom they managed to pilot off to Canada as soon as they had no further use for them, or as soon as their operations began to leak out. There are a number of well-known firms whose names are to be mixed up in this extraordinary scandal, but it is not proper, for obvious reasons, to make them public at this stage."

Stoner was one of the most expert and trusted of B. P. Hutchinson's clerks, having held for some considerable time the place of settling clerk in that office. On his departure, Hutchinson, stands the office of W. P. Dickinson, an older Board of Trade operator. Mr. Dickinson was the employer of "Bert" King, another trusted clerk, who not only acted in the capacity of settling clerk, but was also a general manager of Dickinson's office. King would go to Stoner and tell him to mark up any amount he considered safe from $100 to $1,000, and he would credit W. P. Dickinson's account, and he would obey instructions. Stoner would make no corresponding entry on Dickinson's clearance sheet, as he should have done if he was honest. Mr. Dickinson was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The amount claimed on his clearance sheet by Dickinson was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money would be returned to Hutchinson, as understood, and Mr. Stoner would be on the lookout for this, and if he found the money was returned, he would send it over to Dickinson, and thus secure accounts and save unnecessary bother. The clearing sheet was never paid to Mr. Dickinson, but he was kept in the dark as to what was going on in his clearing sheet. The money was collected by Dickinson. The money